

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

February 1, 2013

Ms. LeAnn M. Quinn
City Secretary
City of Cedar Park
450 Cypress Creek Road
Cedar Park, Texas 78613

OR2013-01857

Dear Ms. Quinn:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 481897 (Reference No. 13-246).

The City of Cedar Park (the "city") received a request for information related to a traffic accident involving a named individual. You state some of the requested information either has been or will be released. You inform us the city will withhold driver's license numbers pursuant to section 552.130(c) of the Government Code, a license plate number pursuant to the previous determination issued under section 552.130(a)(2) in Open Records Decision No. 684 (2009), and social security numbers pursuant to section 552.147(b) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> You claim other responsive information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, 552.130, and 552.136 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the information you submitted.

<sup>1</sup>Section 552.130(c) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact the information described in subsections 552.130(a)(1) and (a)(3) without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.130(c); see also id. § 552.130(d)-(e) (requestor may appeal governmental body's decision to withhold information under section 552.130(c) to attorney general, and governmental body withholding information pursuant to section 552.130(c) must provide notice to requestor). Open Records Decision No. 684 is a previous determination issued by this office authorizing all governmental bodies to withhold specified categories of information without requesting a decision, including a Texas license plate number under section 552.130. Section 552.147(b) authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without requesting a decision.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This exception encompasses common-law privacy, which protects information that is highly intimate or embarrassing, such that its release would be highly objectionable to a person of ordinary sensibilities, and of no legitimate public interest. See Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both elements of the test must be established. Id. at 681-82. Personal financial information related only to an individual ordinarily satisfies the first element of the common-law privacy test, but the public has a legitimate interest in the essential facts about a financial transaction between an individual and a governmental body. See Open Records Decision Nos. 545 at 4 (1990), 523 at 4 (1989), 373 at 4 (1983). We agree the city must withhold the personal financial information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body must reasonably explain how and why section 552.108 is applicable to the information at issue. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state, and have provided documentation from the city's police department confirming, the information submitted as Exhibit C is related to pending criminal prosecutions. Based on your representation and documentation, we conclude the city may withhold Exhibit C under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976).

Section 552.130 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information related to a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license or permit or a motor vehicle title or registration issued by an agency of this state or another state or country. See Gov't Code § 552.130(a)(1)-(2). We conclude the city must withhold the remaining motor vehicle information you have marked and the driver's license and motor vehicle information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

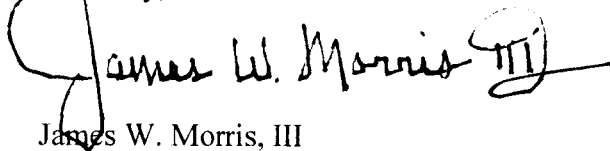

Section 552.136 of the Government Code provides that "[n]otwithstanding any other provision of [the Act], a credit card, debit card, charge card, or access device number that is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental body is confidential." Id. § 552.136(b); see id. § 552.136(a) (defining "access device"). This office has determined an insurance policy number is an access device for purposes of this exception. We therefore agree the city must withhold the insurance policy number you have marked under section 552.136 of the Government Code.

In summary, the city (1) must withhold the personal financial information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy; (2) may withhold Exhibit C under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code; (3) must withhold the remaining motor vehicle information you have marked and the driver's license and motor vehicle information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code; and (4) must withhold the insurance policy number you have marked under section 552.136 of the Government Code.
